Christian Leadership and Roles for Adventurous Christians

Christian leadership is the key to our camping ministry. The commitment, attitude, example and verbal witness of camp staff contributes more than any other factor to the campers' openness and responsiveness to the Gospel and the work of the Holy Spirit.

Therefore, it is essential that all applicants be willing to:

1. share public testimony when given opportunity.
2. provide spiritual counsel to individual campers.
3. share their life in Christ by example and by word with campers and staff throughout the life of the camp.
4. enter into their job responsibilities and staff relationships with a positive and supportive attitude.
5. uphold great character so not to blemish the outstanding reputation of Adventurous Christians.

Please write on the following subjects. Confine to the space provided.

Describe your personal relationship to Jesus Christ _____

What avenues of Christian growth are you involved with at this time? _____

Where do you expect to be in ten years, in terms of ambitions and accomplishments? _____

What is your attitude toward people who have authority over you? _____

Would you call yourself a servant? Why? _____

With what importance do you view the authority of Scripture in ordering your life? _____

Why do you wish to work at Adventurous Christians/CWC?

As a matter of policy, it has been determined by the Adventurous Christians Commission that the use of smoking materials or drinking of alcoholic beverages by Adventurous Christians staff members is not permitted on the camp grounds or at any camping ministry sponsored program or event. The use of drugs shall be limited to such as prescribe by a physician. The abuse of any substance or habit while not necessarily against camp policy may be cause for dismissal.

CONDITIONS FOR ACCEPTANCE: If accepted for the applied for Staff position, I will abide by the policies above and the principles of ethics, conduct and dress asked of me, and will accept my proper responsibility as a member of the Adventurous Christians/CWC family. The information given herein is true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that this information will be kept confidential.
